The Wonder That Was India: A Survey of Culture and Heritage

By Prof. A. L. Basham

Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University - Department of AIHC & Archaeology

Ancient Indian civilization is distinguished by its extraordinary continuity and spiritual depth.
From the early settlements of Mehrgarh and the Harappan bronze-age urbanism to the Vedic epochs, the Indian subcontinent pioneered advanced town planning, standardization of weights and measures, and profound philosophical treatises that continue to influence human thought across millennia.

Historical Chapters in this Research Volume:

1. The Indus Valley Civilization: Mohenjo-daro, Harappa, Dholavira, and Rakhigarhi.
2. The Vedic Age: Rigvedic hymns, social structures, and sacrificial institutions.
3. The Rise of Magadha, the Mauryan Empire, and Ashoka the Greats Dhamma Inscriptions.
4. Classical Golden Age under the Imperial Guptas: Science, Sanskrit Literature, and Astronomy.
5. Deccan and Peninsular Kingdoms: Satavahanas, Vakatakas, Chalukyas, and Rashtrakutas.